Additional Fees

Additional out of pocket costs can range from $200.00 to more than $1,000.00. All Associate Degree Occupational Therapy Assistant programs require a background check, drug screen, vaccinations and/or titers, health insurance, and CPR certification. Depending on the clinical facility, students may also be required to purchase hospital required identification badges and obtain additional background checks/drug screens. Graduates can expect there to be additional costs associated with registering for the National Board for Certification in Occupational Therapy (NBCOT) certification exam and applying for state licensure.
