
Articulation Agreement Guide

Trusted. Respected. Preferred.

Pima Medical Institute (PMI) is committed to maintaining articulation agreements with education institutions to ensure transferable academic credit for PMI students and graduates. PMI develops partnerships and articulation opportunities that increase students' and graduates' accessibility to advanced educational opportunities.

PMI has agreements with the following institutions: Central Methodist University (CMU), Chadron State College (CSC), Chamberlain University (CU), Concordia University-Wisconsin (CUW), Excelsior College (EC), Grand Canyon University (GCU), Huntington University (HU), Penn Foster College (PF), Post University, University of Missouri (UMCVM), University of Phoenix (UOP), and University of St. Augustine for Health Sciences (USAHS). These agreements allow PMI graduates to transfer specific credits and/or pursue undergraduate or graduate degree programs (online or on-ground).

PMI students and graduates are subject to the terms of the agreements that are in place at the time of their enrollment in the partnering institution. Additional information about the agreements is included on the following pages.

PMI supports the pursuit of life-long learning. In turn, PMI offers degree completion programs and maintains agreements with other institutions to provide graduates with multiple options for continuing their education.

PMI Education Department

*Pima Medical Institute does not guarantee the transfer of credit to any other institution.
The college and/or university to which a student applies determine transfer of credit.
The articulation agreements in this guide are subject to change.*
